"Anxious For Nothing: Finding Calm in a Chaotic World"
by Max Lucado

Max Lucado writes "Do you feel weighted down with worry? Does the road you're traveling loom large with mountains to cross, obstacles to avoid and hairpin curves to navigate? Could you use some calm? If so, I have a scripture for you to read.

'Be anxious for nothing, but in everything by prayer and supplication, with thanksgiving, let your requests be made known to God; and the peace of God, which surpasses all understanding, will guard your hearts and minds through Christ Jesus.'

Philippians 4:6-7 is the most underlined passage in the Bible. According to this promise, anxiety comes with life, but it doesn't have to dominate your life. With God as your helper and this verse at your side, you can sleep better tonight and smile more tomorrow. You can talk yourself off the ledge and view bad news through the lens of sovereignty. You can discover a life that is characterized by calm and develop tools for facing the onslaughts of anxiety.

Let's invite God to reframe the way we face our fears and win the war on worry. By his power we will 'be anxious for nothing.'"

Join us this Sunday to begin the Journey to leave worry behind you.

Sunday, February 18. Come and find "CALM in a CHAOTIC WORLD" on this First Sunday of Lent. We begin the Lenten Season with the desire to "not be anxious about anything, but in every situation," to seek the Lord's presence, will, and way. This Sunday I am preaching on "Rejoice the Lord is Alive and Active." The Sermon Texts are Philippians 4:4-7 and Psalm 19.

Ash Wednesday Dinner and Worship Tonight!

Come this evening at 5:30 p.m. for a wonderful dinner and time of conversation. Then at 6:30 p.m. we will worship together and seek God's presence. We will celebrate the Lord's Supper and those who wish to receive the sign of the cross in ashes will have that opportunity in worship.

Angel House Mission Special Offering. We are asking for your support for Bhoke, Rhobi, and Lucy once again. We have been supporting these three middle school aged girls since they were in grade school. We will receive a special offering for their support over the next three Sundays. It's a joy to see them growing up and reaching their God given potential because of the love and ministry of so many fine leaders, teachers, and servants at Angel House Mission.

Hoffman Hall Redecoration Progress. The wallpaper is up now, on the top part of the walls, while the chair rail to the floor has been painted. In the weeks to come there will be new baseboards, new window treatments, blinds and valances and new light sconces added to Hoffman Hall. Last of all there will be new chairs. It is exciting to watch everything take shape each week.

"The Center" Joliet Area Youth Ministry is thriving at their new home in our church. They had 40 youth plus their leadership team attend a lock-in at our church this past Friday evening through Saturday morning. Yes, they had a great retreat and turnout in the midst of our big snow. You will see their band equipment set up in Hoffman Hall in the back corner. "The Center" youth ministry meets each Thursday evening in Hoffman Hall. They have grown since coming to our church and have moved down to Hoffman Hall as we hoped and they had dreamed.

1 Concert and 2 Bands on Saturday, February 24.

Two Christian Bands will be at our church for a concert. The Enlivened Band, a local band, will open the concert at 6:30 p.m. for the second band, Water Within, which is from Nashville. Water Within will play at 7:00 p.m., and there will be refreshments and homemade cookies at 6:00 to welcome everyone. It will be a great night of music.

All Officer Retreat for Day Deacons, Night Deacons, and Elders.

We are holding the All Officer Retreat on Thursday evening February 22. Dinner begins at 5:30 p.m. We will start our retreat together at 6:00 p.m. and finish by 9:00 p.m. This worked very well for us last year. Come enjoy dinner fellowship and working together on the life, ministry, and mission of our church.
