“The Struggle is Real – A Journey with Jonah”
Jonah is not some distant man who ran from God—he is US. Nineveh is not just a wicked place. It is our most hated enemy, family member, boss, coworker, divorced spouse, abuser, bully, political opponent, etc. Nineveh is the place we want to see our revenge happen in a human idea of justice.

The Struggle is Real - Part Four – “Go to Nineveh!” We come to the close of our sermon series, “The Struggle is Real,” as we look at the last chapter of the book of Jonah and what it means for us today. Jonah was called by God to go to Nineveh. God had one thing in mind and Jonah, another. Jonah and his self-righteous anger would rather die than admit that God actually knows what God is doing with regard to Nineveh. This Sunday, in “Go to Nineveh!”, we will look at Jonah 3:10-4:11 and try to understand what God might have in store for us and how we can get on board. The Struggle Is Real and...So Is My God!

THE PASTOR'S CORNER... Craig Herr, Senior Pastor

Lenten Journey. Lent begins on Ash Wednesday, February 14. Throughout this Lenten Season we are using Max Lucado's latest book, "Anxious For Nothing: Finding Calm in a Chaotic World" for both worship and study.

Max Lucado describes his book: "Do you feel weighted down with worry? Does the road you're traveling loom large with mountains to cross, obstacles to avoid and hairpin curves to navigate? Could you use some calm? If so, I have a scripture for you to read.

'Be anxious for nothing, but in everything by prayer and supplication, with thanksgiving, let your requests be made known to God; and the peace of God, which surpasses all understanding, will guard your hearts and minds through Christ Jesus.'

Philippians 4:6-7 is the most underlined passage in the Bible. According to this promise, anxiety comes with life, but it doesn't have to dominate your life. With God as your helper and this verse at your side, you can sleep better tonight and smile more tomorrow. You can talk yourself off the ledge and view bad news through the lens of sovereignty. You can discover a life that is characterized by calm and develop tools for facing the onslaughts of anxiety.

Let's invite God to reframe the way we face our fears and win the war on worry. By his power we will 'be anxious for nothing' and experience the 'peace of God, which surpasses all understanding.'"

I invite you to pick up a copy of Max Lucado's book in the Narthex this week. I believe you will be glad you did. It's a bargain and a great investment for just $12.

Hoffman Hall Redecoration Progress. The wallpaper is going up this week on the top part of the walls while the chair rail to the floor has been painted. In the weeks to come there will be new window treatments, blinds and valances and new light sconces added to Hoffman Hall. Last of all there will be new chairs. It is exciting to watch everything take shape each week.

All Officer Retreat for Day Deacons, Night Deacons, and Elders. We are holding the All Officer Retreat on Thursday evening, February 22. Dinner begins at 5:30 p.m. We will start our retreat together at 6:00 p.m. and finish by 9:00 p.m. This worked very well for us last year. Come enjoy dinner fellowship and working together on the life, ministry, and mission of our church.
