CHRIST THE KING

This coming Sunday is “Christ the King” Sunday, marking the conclusion of the church’s liturgical year and positioning us at the threshold of Advent...the season of hope for Christ’s coming again. The sermon text for Sunday comes from Revelation 1:1-8 with my sermon titled, “The Alpha and the Omega.” When Revelation was written, women and men living within the rule of the Roman Empire had a choice—Caesar or Christ. Declare Caesar Lord or die. What were they to do? What hope did they have then? What hope do we have today?

— Dale Ambler

Mission

Our Micro Pantry is already filling a need in our community. The “Take what you need, leave what you can” policy is designed to allow anonymous food pick-up for those in need and a drop-off point for those who wish to donate. Lisa Kasper worked hard to get the Micro Pantry here and is the one focusing on keeping it filled and available to the community. Lisa is working with Linda and Wayne Zoellick as well as Kendall Fris to grow this ministry for those in need.

PW Second Time Around Christmas Sale—“What shall I do with all of these Christmas decorations? They looked great when I put them up 10 years ago, but now?” Don’t worry. There will be an opportunity to clear your closets! PW’s 2nd Time Around Christmas Sale is December 8. Just drop off your extra treasures under the coat rack by the Fireside Room from Sunday, December 2 to Friday, December 7, 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. Some suggestions: garland, ornaments, trees, plates, candy dishes, etc. Thank you for your donations.

—The PW 2nd Time Around Christmas Sale Committee

Stars of Hope—Thank you for taking the Stars of Hope. MorningStar Mission families will greatly appreciate your generosity. Remember, the wrapped gifts are due back to church by Sunday, December 2.

Mission to the Homeless—Easy open canned goods, warm socks, toiletries, etc. are always needed and now that fall is here, warm hats, gloves, and socks are especially needed. If you work for a company that would like to share in this mission, call Linda Zoellick at 520-400-8396. The next packing day is Sunday, November 25, between services.

Follow-up on our Feed My Starving Children Mobile Food Packing Event. I received the following information from Carrie L. Wiggins, Development Advisor – MobilePack for FMSC.

“I also want to let you know that some of the meals from your event have already shipped! The details of the first shipment are as follows:

432 boxes (93,312 meals) have shipped to Haiti through our partner “Food for the Poor.”

Food for the Poor links the church of the First World with the church of the Third World in a manner that helps both the materially poor and the poor in spirit. FFTP has distributed FMSC meals through its extensive network of partner organizations in the Caribbean, Central America and South America. Please check out the following blog post to see the impact of some of the work of Food for the Poor in Haiti:

I will keep you updated when the rest of the meals ship!” (That’s another 108 boxes and 23,328 meals.)

Church Officer Nominations. We are seeking nominations for Day Deacons, Night Deacons, and Elders. Please speak with a pastor, e-mail the office or talk to a nominating committee member: Don Barnes or Reed Mott. Suggestions as well as self-recommendations are welcome.

Post Note Ministry and/or Mission Ideas. In the Narthex/Lobby area you will find five 8’ by 4’ boards; one for each practice. As we take this journey you are invited to use the post notes to suggest something we could do to move our church forward in faith, hope, and action.

Write your idea on a post note and place it on the board it goes with. The actions, ideas, are about helping us to be the church, and to do something that moves us ahead as followers of Christ Jesus.

Pick up a copy of Five Practices by Robert Schnase (a great book), and start reading, thinking, and imagining. Share your ideas in any area of ministry on one of the boards. You might have a new idea for something we have never done before or you might have an idea to do something we currently do with a different twist to it. Now is the time to share some of your ideas for ministry at First Pres.

In Christ,
Craig
