|----------|---------------|-----------------|--------------------|------------|---------------|------------------|-------------------|
| Planning | Mission Study | Data Evaluation | Resume Evaluations | Interviews | Pastor Visits | Pastor Selection | Pastor Acceptance |
|----------|---------------|-----------------|--------------------|------------|---------------|------------------|-------------------|

We have received and reviewed the first 30 applicants and requested additional information from the top candidates. We are also requesting additional matches through the CLC system. Your PNC is working diligently to access and review perspective applicants in order to find the person best suited for First Pres.

A letter from Acting Head Pastor Bo Mircea

John 16:33- "I have said these things to you, that in me you may have peace. In the world you will have tribulation. But take heart; I have overcome the world."

Have you wondered about this peace that Jesus talks about? Is it the absence of conflict? Is it a state of serenity? Is it feeling that all is right with the world? What is peace? Peace, God's peace, is more than any of us can understand at times. It is feeling safe when the world around us is not. Peace is feeling comfort when bad news comes. God's peace is learning to trust and rely on God. This Sunday I am preaching on wholeness, peace, and the Prodigal Son. I would encourage you to revisit that parable and ask yourself this one question: If I was him, what would I do with my life?

I am looking forward to worship with you on Sunday and celebrating the Lord's supper. Don't forget Hymn sing starts this Sunday so make sure you get to church early.

Also wishing you a Happy and safe 4th of July. May you celebrate the blessings we remember on this day, and continue to pray for this country that we all love. God Bless America, indeed.

Blessings,
Pastor Bo

SPECIAL MUSIC

Summer is a hiatus for the Chancel Choir. This creates a need for volunteers to provide special music during services in July (and likely August). If you have the necessary skills to perform either vocally or instrumentally and wish to volunteer your talents, please contact the office. If your piece is accompanied, you need to give a copy of your music to Beth Maurer ahead of time for her to practice. And you need to arrange a time to go through your piece with Beth prior to your service performance. The image we project as a church includes the talents we display through our music. So, your contributions can reach both those attending our services and those tuning in online. "Don't hide your light under a bushel!" to paraphrase Luke. Here is one more way to witness to a world that needs to hear the message!!

A letter from Director of Children and Youth Ministries Lindsay Gordon

Hello everyone!

It's hard to believe that our time at VBS has already come to an end! Scuba was so much fun, and being able to celebrate with you all this past Sunday brought me so much joy. Continue asking the kids to share what they learned with you, and next time you see one of our wonderful volunteers, be sure to thank them again! We truly could not have done it without them.

Just because VBS has concluded does not mean that we are pumping the brakes on anything! Our youth group's Missions Week is coming up next week, and we are shifting from an overnighter model to individual projects over the course of July 9-11th. Our students will be serving at the Northern Illinois Food Bank, Feed My Starving Children, and MorningStar Mission. If your student is interested in serving on any or all of these projects, please contact me as soon as possible in order to check on the availability of spots for each project.

On Wednesday the 10th, during Missions Week, our students will have their Outdoor Movie Night in Matt and Laura Pritz's backyard, just on the other side of the church parking lot. We'll gather at 7pm at the back of the church and walk over together for an evening of fun and fellowship!

I hope you all have a fun and safe Independence Day weekend!

In Christ,
Lindsay Gordon
